

Career Opportunities

Construction Software Support Specialist

Zybertech Construction Software, Canada's leading supplier of North America's most successful residential builder software solutions, is looking for a:

Construction Software Implementation and Support Specialist, Calgary Office

We are looking for an experienced individual to assist us in the implementation and customer support of our software solutions in the areas of:

- Timberline Estimating
- HomeFront Software – Sales management, Estimating and Purchasing
- HomeBuilder Production Scheduling.

The position requires above average computer skills in areas of spreadsheet, crystal report writing and database usage, combined with excellent customer service and organizational skills, including strong oral, listening and written communication skills.

Qualifications: Minimum of 2 years previous residential construction estimating experience using Timberline software required.

Some travel is required. Competitive salary and benefits package offered.

Zybertech Construction Software is an Authorized Business Partner for Sage Timberline Office a world leader in the design, development and sale of software and services for the construction and real estate industries